However, we can overcome fear of intimacy. Falling in love not only brings excitement and fulfillment; it also creates anxiety and fears of rejection and potential loss. This, coupled with the awareness that there are no longer parents to fall back on, may effect a more mature stance in parentally bereaved adults who no longer think of themselves as children. Toomanymenusesexasasubstituteforintimacyandpornographyisnotreal.W I experienced that first hand. Bring the other one with you. It was a closed adoption through an attorney and my adoptive parents were much older than most couples who were having children during that time. LeftmewithapileofmemoriesoutsideofthehomeIworkedsohard.Hepassedaway seems the other person was not ready for the relationship and its dysfunctional dynamics to change, and indeed, end.
