Bloodroom by Naima Haviland

Editorial Reviews. About the Author. Naima Haviland likes dead people. Fictional dead people, that is, and the twisted people who make them dead (or undead).

The Bad Death by Naima Haviland

I absolutely adore this series! I fell in love with Julian in Bloodroom, being both repelled and attracted to him - I cannot get him out of my head. The Bad Death.

As you can guess a plat-eye is a vampire and there's a whole lotta death happening on the plantation. Soul had been pretty pissed about it but he calmed down after a week yet he still seemed to be acting weird. I'm going to screw up and fall down until my knees bleed. ChristinaNeely. The whole farce disgusted Vesalius and convinced him to quit Spain. He smuggled the cadavers back into the city beneath his garments, then stored them in his bedroom for weeks, to linger over their dissections like a cannibal gourmand over a meal. Dolen Perkins-Valdez.
