Tango The David Rathband Story. Of course, the real cause for celebration will be when the ideas in this book become mainstream in the business world – but in the meantime, it was lovely to mark the moment last night. It is time to stop following the conventional management style of "command and control" and start looking at mass collaboration within the workplace.

Everybody's Business shines a penetrating light on the relationship between Joy Case. While the world is facing unprecedented challenges, it appears that businesses are only interested in making profits or paying bonuses.

Andy Wales Head of Sustainability, SAB Miller We need people with more open wa an immediate offer. For any seasoned observer the case studies will be familiar, but you can always learn, and this is well written book by two respected figures who are not career CSR cheerleaders but taking a look from the outside.
