TBI: By contrast, Bausinger argued, Martha Musils edition of Musils works, with a separately published third volume and an arrangement of chapters based partly on the Druckfahnenkapitel chapters that Musil had authorized for publication in and then withdrawn was more in accord with Musils intentions. He settled in London.

This loss of the original in Derridas formulation, the loss of originality. In other words, pedantic precision draws its authority from imaginary constructs, whereas imaginary precision relies to the contrary on the authority of the facts. To sum up, if anyone desires to read a penetrating story about the complexity of beauty in modern times; Musil's novel based in its own experience as cadet in a military academy is a suitable answer to his preys.
