One of the happiest people on earth, in my opinion, is His Holiness, the Dalai Lama, leader of Tibetan Buddhism, who said, "If you want others to be happy, practice compassion. A mother heron and her offspring flew just over our heads. The priority is just being good to yourself, being genuinely kind, caring and helpful towards yourself in a way that you may not be used to at all.

Iwasjustmakinganobservationonthatmatter.Jews came later when God had to try to preserve a people for Himself, else there might be no one who would be righteous. Our love is unconditional; it cannot be separated by the enticement of money.
