All your ancestors were serf-owners, possessors of living souls. Those who like to go to visit the most perfectly appointed, but utterly impersonal house, find no other visiting to compare with its unhampering delightfulness. Rather than face social exclusion, members of the Rothschild family built the house. Aside from the gentry who lived in these homes full-time, nobility and royalty treated country homes like the summer houses we use today. Like the sound of these great houses? If when she unpacks she sees that something of importance has been forgotten, she is good tempered no matter what happens, and makes the most of everything as it comes. In the bedroom the hostess should make sure by sleeping in it at least once that the bed is comfortable, that the sheets are long enough to tuck in, that there are enough pillows for one who sleeps with head high.
